

2009 PACIFIC NORTHWEST WEATHER

SCRAMBLE GOLF TOURNAMENT

This is an event for weather partners to have fun together. Family, friends and retirees are invited too! Prizes for all! An awards ceremony follows the golf. Limit of 48 players, so sign up soon!

DATE: Saturday, Aug 15 1st Tee Time: 1100 AM – 18 holes

SITE: Fort Lewis Golf Course – Fort Lewis, Washington
Just west of I-5 at the Mounts Rd exit 116 between Lacey and Tacoma

FORMAT: Scramble play. Teams of 3, 4 or 5 determined by number of entrants. You can make your own team as long it is nearly even in skill with the field (note: if enough imbalances, team could be split up). Each player hits a tee shot, the best shot is chosen, all hit the next shot, select the best one and continue through each hole. Below par team scores are common. Last year, near all teams shot par or better. A fun game for players of all skill levels!

ENTRY FEE: $52.00 (includes green fees and prizes – lunch and cart separate)

Make check payable to Ted Buehner and send with entry to:
Ted Buehner, National Weather Service, 7600 Sand Point Way NE, Seattle, WA 98115

DEADLINE: Wednesday, August 5

PRIZES: 1st, 2nd, 3rd Team Gross Team Pay Balls 3 Closest to Pins
4 Long Drives Plus many more fun prizes
